

Charles B. Rangel International Affairs Program

- A collaborative effort between Howard University and the U.S. State Department that seeks to attract and prepare outstanding young people for careers as diplomats in the Foreign Service of the U.S. Department of State.
- The program seeks individuals interested in helping to shape a freer, more secure and prosperous world through formulating, representing, and implementing U.S. foreign policy.
- The Program encourages the application of members of minority groups historically underrepresented in the Foreign Service and those with financial need.
- There are two major components to the Rangel Program:
 - An International Affairs Graduate Fellowship Program that provides support for graduate school, professional development, and entry into the U.S. Foreign Service
 - Eligibility requirements for the graduate fellowship:
 - Applicants must be U.S. citizens
 - Be seeking admission to enter graduate school in fall 2015 for a two-year program at a U.S. university
 - Have a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.2 on a 4.0 scale at the time of application.
 - Application Deadline: January 14, 2015
 - An undergraduate International Affairs Summer Enrichment Program that provides undergraduates with the opportunity to enhance their skills, knowledge and understanding about U.S. foreign policy
 - Eligibility requirements for the Summer Enrichment Program:
 - Applicants must be U.S. citizens
 - Be full-time undergraduate students at the time of application
 - Have a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.2 on a 4.0 scale at the time of application.
